Internal Marketing Communications Internship

At Red Hat, we connect an innovative community of customers, partners, and contributors to deliver an open source stack of trusted, high-performing solutions. We offer cloud, Linux, middleware, storage, and virtualization technologies, together with award-winning global customer support, consulting, and implementation services. Red Hat is a rapidly growing company supporting more than 90% of Fortune 500 companies.

Red Hat is seeking an Internal Marketing Communications Intern to join us in Brno, Czech Republic. You will create and promote content and events that reflect the challenges facing Red Hat, encouraging associates to discover and share knowledge and insights with each other and with the business leadership.

Responsibilities:

- Work on content for newsletters, blog posts, video, audio, and events
- Nurture and grow an internal audience for our content
- Identify new and innovative ways for technical people to learn from and share with each other
- Keep up-to-date with what is going on in the site office and in the company worldwide
- Help with preparation of Red Hat events
- Take part in local conferences a few times a year and be creative about gathering information from there, and condensing it into an easily consumable and useful form for later

Requirements:

- English communication skills on a proficiency level (C1-C2)
- Quick learner; interested in new technologies and open source
- Motivated, creative, and curious
- Ability to work in Red Hat's Brno office on a regular basis
- Current full-time student in the Czech Republic
- Willingness to work flexible hours due to interaction with people in different time zones
- Experience with writing in English

The following skills are advantages:

- Experience with graphics or video
- Experience with editing and 3D animation
- Programming, networking, and sysadmin skills
- Understanding of psychology
- Experience with typesetting in LaTeX or a similar program
